OFFICE SPACE THAT COVERS ALL THE BASES

The Warehouse at Camden Yards, converted to iconic office space in 1992, is one of the most recognizable landmarks in Baltimore. Built between 1899-1905 to service the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the Warehouse spans 1,116 feet in length, making it the longest brick building east of the Mississippi River. This historic brick warehouse runs parallel to Oriole Park, giving tenants the experience of Baltimore's rich history and all of the excitement downtown has to offer.
